PROCEEDINGS: JURY TRIAL (DAY ONE)

Court convenes at 8:39 a.m. The defendants are present in custody. Task Force Officer Michael Mullen is present with the Government.

The Court inquires of counsel whether there are any preliminary matters which need to be addressed. Arguments of counsel are then heard with respect to [65] Motion in Limine and [70] Motion to Dismiss Superseding Indictment. The Court sets forth its findings on the record and denies the motions. IT IS SO ORDERED.

The Court calls for the prospective jurors.

Fifty-one prospective jurors enter the courtroom, and are sworn by the clerk. Thirty-two prospective jurors are then seated and voir dire begins.

10:11 a.m. The prospective jurors are excused for a recess and challenges for cause are made.

10:18 a.m. Court stands at recess

10:34 a.m. Court reconvenes in the presence of prospective jurors and voir dire continues. Peremptory challenges are made, and the final jury of fifteen members is seated and sworn by the clerk.
